- Council will have virtual retreat in February so not formal Council meeting
  - Thank you to the outgoing council of Nowlin, Suhr, Hackler, MacDonald, Lakeman and Satterberg.
- SW Report
  - Thank you to all outgoing council members
- Property Report
  - McGough analysis for CapEx involved a member from the Climate Justice Committee.
  - Martha Hoover asked for a $3500/year 3 year commitment for the Hennepin Lyndale Crossroads landscaping that is a renewal of what we have done in the past.
  - Albrecht motions for renewal, Suhr 2nds. Voice vote accepts
- Finance Report
  - Finance committee met and approved the $1,866MM 2022 budget
  - Received the draw from Foundation. Were challenged by them to understand the plan.
  - Thanks for the 3 year budget and all the work that went into it.
  - Expenses slightly higher than last year
  - Benefits will remain the same
  - Reinvest into ministry areas
  - Motion to approve the 2022 balance budget as proposed in December by Suhr, 2nd by Hackler. Voice vote approves
  - Intergenerational Stewardship Policy needs to be rectified
  - Iris Key and Sten Johnson are interested in being members of the Finance Committee
  - Motion to approve report by Suhr, 2nd by Albrecht. Voice approves
- Governance
  - A few revisions made to constitution and statutes
  - Defined officers versus members
  - Clarified responsibilities and authority
  - Kirwan asked how we discern the line between property and operational authority
  - Childes said we need to do more to put together a policy to provide the strategic direction by the operations to move forward if the committee chair has brought it to approval
  - Childe moves to approve changes to the constitution, Hackler 2nds. Voice approves.
  - Nowlin suggests we have clear cut lines in the statutes from Admin with reports. Who is the administrator of the Cathedral? Tim?
  - Childe suggests Admin role deserves a sub section of statutes. Have Dean and Admin fill in the blanks and get back to council. We have been missing it for years. We should write it down.
  - Childe moves to accept Statutes, Albrecht 2nds. Voice vote approves.
- Council elections are Jan 30th at 945am. We have 1 SW candidate and 1 Clerk candidate. Any addition, please bring forward soon! We will be virtual prior to the 1030am service.
- Childe says we need at least 50 people for a quorum. How do we ensure that number and count heads? Remember they must be a member in good standing.
- Satterberg prayer out
- Suhr motions to adjourn, Childe 2nd, voice approves.
